DISTRIBUTOR BULLETIN NO. 35

December 31, 1946

RENEWAL OF DISTRIBUTOR AGREEMENTS

All existing Republic Distributor Sales Agreements covering areas in the United States, Alaska, Canada and Newfoundland expire March 31, 1947, the anniversary of the commencing of Seabee production.

In accordance with Section 27 of the Republic domestic Distributor's Agreement entitled, "Renewal", Republic hereby gives notice of its intention to offer all of its present distributors in the above areas, a new Distributor Agreement to become effective on termination of the present contract. No basic changes are contemplated except modification to eliminate certain wartime provisions and to provide for automatic renewal at the end of each contract year. Drafts of the new Distributor Agreement will be submitted sometime in January.

In the meantime, if your first year's experience has indicated any hardship or inequalities in the matter of boundary lines or quotas, or if you have other matters relating to the contract renewal to bring up for discussion, please let us hear from you.

May I, on behalf of all here at Republic, wish you a very Happy New Year.
